DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 1-5, drawn to a lectin library comprising at least one kind of lectin.

Group 2, claim(s) 6-10, drawn to a method of discriminating glycoprotiens or cells.

Group 3, claim(s) 11-14, drawn to a diagnostic kit comprising a lectin library and other reagents.

Group 4, claim(s) 15 and 16, drawn to an apparatus for fractionation of glycoproteins or cells.

2. The inventions listed as Groups 1-4 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature (i.e. a lectin library) of Group 1 is known in the prior art. Yim et al (PNAS. Vol. 98: 2222-2225; 2/27/2001; cited in the IDS filed 8/18/2005: cite No. CC) teach a lectin library useful for identify different cells (see the entire document). The reference teaches a library mutant lectin that can bind to erythrocytes, and be useful for discriminate a variety of cell types (Abstract of the reference), which reads on the lectin library claimed in the instant claims. Therefore, Groups 1-4 are not so linked by the same or a corresponding special technical feature as to form a single inventive concept. Thus, the inventions lack unity.

Species Election

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Applicants are requested to further elect a single ultimate species for each of the following:

- a. A single specific "kind" of lectin. (For Groups 1-4)
- b. Applicants are also requested to specify the specific entity for which the elected lectin (from the above selection) has affinity (see Claim 1). If Applicants elect "pseudocells" or "cells", applicants are requested to further elect either "erythrocytes" OR "glycophorin". (For Groups 1-4)
- c. A single specific type of cell that is discriminated (see Claims 5 and 10). (For Groups 1-4).
- d. A single specific method selected from the followings: discriminating glycoproteins, discriminating cells, diagnosing serum, diagnosing cells, fractionating glycoproteins, OR fractionating cells (see Claim 6). (For Group 2)
- e. A single specific species of "another substrance" (see Claim 7). (For Groups 2 and 3)
- 4. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The species are distinct, each from the other structurally and functionally, because their modes of action are different. Therefore, the species have different issues regarding patentability and represent patentable distinct subject matter.

5. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Please see the above species selection for correspondence between the claims and the species selection.

The following claim(s) are generic: 1, 6, 11 and 15.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the 7.

inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR

1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
